MORRISTOWN — The Housing Alliance of Morris County, a community collaboration of United Way of Morris County, has announced its elected officers for 2010.

Dan McGuire of Homeless Solutions, Diane Driscoll of Community Hope, community volunteer Mike Wall and Michelle Roers of United Way of Morris County will lead the Housing Alliance this year.

Roers, director of community impact at United Way of Morris County, and McGuire, director of headquarters development at Homeless Solutions, will serve as co-chairs of the Alliance. This is Roers' third consecutive year in the position.

This is McGuire's second term as co-chair. As co-chairs, they are responsible for leading the Housing Alliance in its efforts to advocate for affordable housing solutions in Morris County.

Driscoll, housing development specialist at Community Hope, will serve as secretary. As housing development specialist, she works to expand the availability of affordable, supportive community housing opportunities for the organization's low-income, special needs clients.

Wall, a community volunteer, will act as Housing Alliance treasurer. Wall is an finance executive with a background in coaching, motivating and directing teams to success. Most recently, he served as senior vice president, regional manager at Capital One Bank.

For information about the Housing Alliance of Morris County, contact Roers at 973-993-1160, x116 or michelle.roers@uwmorris.org.
